

Fort Langley Canoe Club Huli Quiz

Reference: http://www.fortlangleycanoeclub.ca/oc_huli.html

1. In a situation such as high wake or waves, to avoid a huli, a crew should shift its weight
 - a. left
 - b. right
2. To avoid being hit by the ama during a huli
 - a. push away from the boat
 - b. stay close to the boat
3. If a member of the crew is injured in the process of a huli, he or she is helped by seat 1 or seat 6 and kept
 - a. in the boat and sheltered
 - b. close to the end of the boat out of the way
4. Identify the job for each seat position in the event of a huli:
 - a. Seat 1: _____
 - b. Seats 2 & 5: _____
 - c. Seats 3 & 4: _____
 - d. Seat 6: _____
5. The captain may assign a job to each crew member that does not coincide to that person's seat.
 - a. true
 - b. false
6. Once the outrigger is righted, crew members should:
 - a. just jump in quickly
 - b. swim to the ama side and jump in quickly
7. Once the crew is back in the boat
 - a. everyone paddles back to shore
 - b. everyone bails water from the boat then paddles back to shore
 - c. Seats 1, 2, 5 and 6 will paddle while Seats 3 & 4 will bail
 - d. Seat 6 will keep the boat aligned in the waves, Seats 1, 2 & 5 will paddle and Seats 3 & 4 will continue to bail